

Somewhere – back there – the idea of living in the heart of this beautiful city touched you – became part of you – and has never let go of you. Now you have the chance to wrap yourself in its arms, and become not just a visitor, but a part – of its heart.

Will you capture the city you've grown to love, or remain, forever, but its visitor?

Welcome to Skyline at First Hill. The first and only retirement community in downtown Seattle offering the Life Care Advantage. Combining the vibrant, urban lifestyle you seek with the health and financial protection you need. Learn about life care and how it provides the utmost in protection for your financial future at an upcoming seminar. And capture the best of living in the city that you love. Call for complete details and to R.S.V.P.
